DOLE WILL STEP DOWN.

Col. Sam Parker Stated as the Governor of Hawaii.

(From the Washington D. C. Post of Jan. 26.)

Another Territorial Governor under the Administration of President Roosevelt must go. Sanford B. Dole, Governor of Hawaii and President of the little republic in the mid-Pacific before the days of annexation, is to be removed, and Col. Sam Parker, the last Prime Minister of Queen Liliuokalani and probably the richest man in the islands, is to be his successor. That is the program arranged here during the last few days. The first formal step toward carrying it out was taken yesterday, when a letter, written by Secretary Hitchcock at President Roosevelt's suggestion, was started for Honolulu intimating to Governor Dole that his resignation was desired.

It will require a month or more to carry out the proposed change, but a radical digression from the present policy, which has been attended with much factional party strife in the last two or three years, is decided upon. The present Secretary of the Territory, Mr. Henry E. Cooper, in recent months the Acting Governor much of the time because of Gov. Dole's poor health, is also to be displaced. Mr. George R. Carter, a prominent young man of Honolulu, a graduate of Yale College, and son of the former Hawaiian Minister in this city, will succeed him. It is altogether probable that still other changes will be made and an entirely new regime inaugurated in the islands.

Mr. Harold Sewall of Maine, and also of Hawaii, where he was stationed as United States Minister for several years, likewise national committeeman for the Territory until a few weeks ago when he resigned in favor of Col. Parker, is understood to have had a hand in engineering the change. He has been here the past week, a guest at the New Willard, and accompanied by Col. Parker, who has been in town for some time on his honey moon trip, has been in consultation with Senator Hanna, as well as with President Roosevelt. Mr. Sewall was himself an aspirant for the Governorship at one time, but for some reason or other retired from the race. He had the earnest support of some Eastern Senators, but eventually gave way to Col. Parker. Both men are opposed to the political policy of Gov. Dole, and have for some time been striving to accomplish his undoing, although Col. Parker is a Republican, and was the unsuccessful candidate of that party for Delegate to Congress at the election nearly two years ago.

For some time President Roosevelt has been seeking a new adjustment of affairs in the Hawaiian Islands. The vigorous factional strife there was emphasized almost as soon as he had been installed in the White House by the case of Circuit Court Judge Humphreys, whom the lawyers of Honolulu were trying to get removed. Judge Humphreys won out in his fight, but it was largely on account of the fact, probably, that he had been the late President McKinley's personal appointment and for other reasons which made it inadvisable at the time to give one faction an advantage over the other. The Dole faction were opposed to Humphreys, and, since his return to the islands, have continued their warfare on him. Apparently reliable reports have it that his resignation will be sent to Washington before many weeks.

In the meantime the President has sought in his appointments to select men as little identified with either faction as possible, and Col. Parker is regarded as such a man. In a sense he is of the old royalist party, and his prospective appointment will undoubtedly cause much rejoicing among the native Hawaiian element although it will strike consternation to the more extreme missionary element, of which Gov. Dole is the exemplar. There can be no doubt of his capacity for a business administration, for he has long had large business affairs of his own.

Cortelyou Talks.

Washington, January 29.—Secretary Cortelyou today made the following statement: "The statement that any man has been offered the Governorship of Hawaii is without any foundation whatever. The President has long been considering the Hawaiian situation, and is still considering it, but he has reached no conclusion as to whether he will retain the present officials or as to whom he will appoint if any changes are made."

DANGER TO SUGAR.

House Leaders Show Their Feelings on Cuban Question.

Washington, January 28.—The Cuban reciprocity hearings were resumed today before the Ways and Means Committee of the House with delegations representing the beet sugar industry of Colorado and a number of Cubans, representing the planters of the island, in attendance.

F. M. Carey of Colorado spoke of the development of the beet sugar industry of Colorado and its bright prospects, if not endangered by Cuban concessions, which he asserted, would redound to the great advantage of the American Sugar refining Company. The present movement, he said, was only another chapter in the inevitable conflict between the domestic sugar producers of this country and the refining company, the latter seeking to crush the former.

Representative Hopkins of Illinois said Carey's assertion of injury to the beet sugar was only an assumption, and he expressed the belief that a reduction could be made of a certain percentage without destroying the beet sugar industry.

Representative Dalzell and Representative Grosvenor took part in the discussion, stating that the injury to the domestic producers had been shown by Carey and other witnesses. Grosvenor remarked that any one could see this result who could put two and two together.

F. B. Machado, head of the delegation of Cuban planters, and a number of other islanders presented the cause of the Cubans, declaring that concessions were necessary to preserve the sugar industry.

Holland Would Mediate.

London, January 28.—The Government leader, A. J. Balfour, announced in the House of Commons today that no overtures for peace had been received from any one authorized to speak in behalf of the Boers. A communication was, however, received late Saturday last from the Dutch Government, which was now under consideration. Balfour hoped shortly to lay the communication and the reply to it before the house.

The Government of Holland has offered in the most friendly terms to help in bringing about peace in South Africa. In a communication to the British Government suggests that it might be permitted to act as a sort of diplomatic agent for the Boer delegates. The Government, however, expressly disavows any attempt at intervention, and does not mention any terms.

THE HILO DOCK.

Work Will be Begun in the Immediate Future.

Philip Peck returned by the Kinai from Honolulu, where he went to close arrangements with the Territorial Government regarding the construction of a wharf at this port. The matter was closed satisfactorily to Mr. Peck, and he speaks in highest commendation of the officials at Honolulu for their liberal attitude on all questions concerning the big improvement. The Governor and heads of departments complied in every way with the propositions made by the men behind the enterprise. Work will soon be begun on the dock. It will be 800 feet in length and 80 or 100 feet in width. The capital will be furnished by local business men for the construction of the dock. From the proceeds of the dock, the Government allows the dock company eight per cent per annum. Whatever is left after all expenses are paid will be applied in repaying the company for cash advanced. When the money is all repaid either from the profits or by legislative appropriations, the big dock will be turned over to the Government.

TRANSPORT SERVICE.

Government Will Continue to Operate Its Own Vessels.

Washington, January 29.—Senator Perkins said today that he had been assured that nothing would be done in the matter of turning the transport service over to private contractors for at least a year.

"Secretary Root has changed his attitude somewhat on this matter," said Senator Perkins. "He was very anxious to have authority from Congress to sell the Government vessels and make contracts for the transportation of troops and supplies, but in view of the showing made by Quartermaster-General Ludington and the officers of the Quartermaster-General's Department, Secretary Root is now loath to act. I am satisfied that nothing will be done for a year, if at all."

Representative Kahn said tonight that he had talked with Representative Hull, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, and that Hull said he was much opposed to turning the transports over to private contract. "So far as the House is concerned," said Representative Kahn, "I think it is safe to say that nothing will be done this session looking toward disposing of the Government transport service or letting private contracts for the transportation of troops and supplies. The system appears to be satisfactory to the House, and will remain as it is."

CUBA WILL LOSE.

Poll of the Committee Shows a Majority Against Tariff Reduction.

Washington, January 29.—A member of the Ways and Means Committee said late tonight that a poll had been taken in the committee on the reduction of the Cuban tariff, and that it stood 7 for reduction and 10 against. "There is a little question as to one man," said this committeeman, "who is included in the count of 10 against. If he gets over to the other side it will make the committee stand 8 for and 9 against. You can positively say that there is a majority of the committee against a reduction of the tariff on Cuban sugar. I think the plan is beaten in the light of this vote."

Governor Murphy Scores.

Washington, January 29.—Governor N. O. Murphy of Arizona had a conference today with the President regarding the charges filed against him at the Interior Department by Eugene O. Ives. One of these charges was that Governor Murphy had misused the contingent fund of the Territory. The Governor called the President's attention to the fact that Secretary Hitchcock had investigated the charges and reported that they were not proved. The President later announced that no further action would be taken.
